Artist Statement
St Joseph by Iconographer Kelly Latimore, printed with permission

While painting this icon I was thinking of all those who have been quietly taking care of their families during the global pandemic. Those who have guided and protected their loved ones through sickness, loss of work, lack of food and forced evictions. Those healthcare workers silently tending the sick and dying, holding hands, looking into eyes, and being present to the most vulnerable. I think of all those people in my own life who have quietly (and sometimes quite unknowingly) kept me going during the pandemic.

St. Joseph has shown us that even the quietest ordinary acts can be signs of hope in the world, reminders that the world bears within itself the seeds of genuine love.

Light Dawns on a Weary World by Mary Louise Bringle

Joy dawns on a weary world when eyes begin to see all people's dignity.

Joy dawns on a weary world: the promised day of justice comes.

The trees shall clap their hands; the dry lands, gush with springs; The Hills and mountains shall break forth with singing! We shall go out in joy, and be led forth in peace, as all the world in wonder echoes shalom.

Call to Worship: Isaiah 60:1-6

Dawn Friedrich

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

^{60:1} Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

² For darkness shall cover the earth
and thick darkness the peoples,
but the LORD will arise upon you,
and God's glory will appear over you.

³ Nations shall come to your light
and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

⁴ Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together; they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away,
and your daughters shall be carried in their nurses' arms.

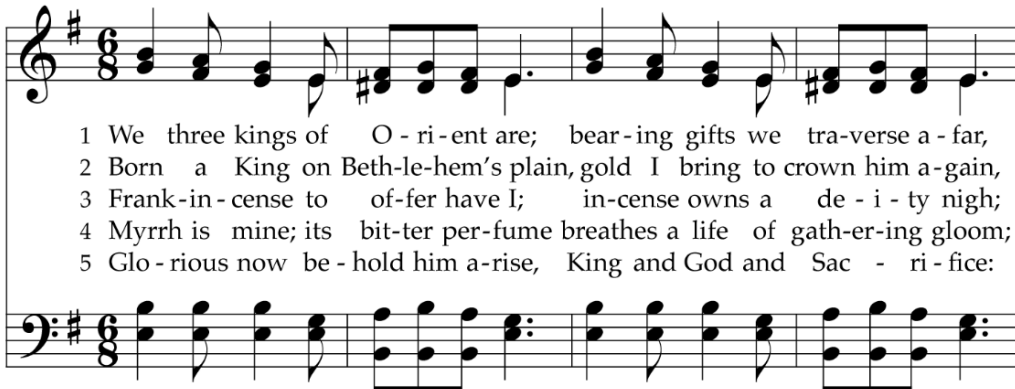

⁵ Then you shall see and be radiant;
your heart shall thrill and rejoice,
because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you;
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

⁶ A multitude of camels shall cover you,
the young camels of Midian and Ephah;
all those from Sheba shall come.
They shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Although Christians had begun by the 2nd century to speak of these visitors from eastern countries (Matthew 2:1–12) as “kings,” perhaps because of passages like Psalm 72:10 and Isaiah 60:3, it is more accurate to think of them as magi or astrologers, the scholars of their day.

When doors open and strangers become friends,
when laughter fills the kitchen,
joy has found its way home.

Let us open our doors wide.

Let us welcome unexpected guests.

Let us delight in God's surprising presence.

What is joy? Joy is...

Today we light the Candle of Joy

May this light dance in every window.

May it scatter shadows of loneliness.

May joy make its home among us.

May it be so! Amen.

Advent Candle Lighting Song [BRING A TORCH]

Joy has come and never will leave us!

Joy is life everlasting and free.

Joy is Jesus within and among us.

Joy is the light our hearts are seeking.

Joy! Joy! Joy is the gift of Christmas.

Joy! Joy! Praise to you, God on high!

Advent Prayer Of Approach

Radiant God,

You shine through the faces of strangers.

When wonder crosses our threshold,

kindle joy like fire on the hearth.

Let its glow remind us that your love still surprises. Amen.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 2:1-12

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

^{2:1}In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, ²asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star in the east and have come to pay him homage." ³When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him, ⁴and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. ⁵They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet:

⁶ 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah,
for from you shall come a ruler
who is to shepherd my people Israel.' "

⁷Then Herod secretly called for the magi and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. ⁸Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." ⁹When they had heard the king, they set out, and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen in the east, until it stopped over the place where the child was. ¹⁰When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. ¹¹On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹²And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Lord's Prayer

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

While Isaac Watts did not write this text strictly for Christmas use, he did purposely cast his paraphrase of Psalm 98:4-9 in Christian terms, titling it "The Messiah's coming and kingdom." So "the Lord" here is Jesus Christ, rather than the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
