Refugees: The Holy Family
by Iconographer Kelly Latimore, printed with permission

I met the family depicted in this icon while in Palestine in 2008. At the time they lived in a terribly confined refugee camp in the West Bank. At one point the camp didn't have a doctor and soldiers were blocking anyone going in and out. However, the pregnant mother's water broke in the middle of the night. The camp had a strict curfew and no one was allowed to be out in the camp streets at night, and feeling something may be wrong she had no one to help her give birth. Not wanting to put anyone else at risk they were able to sneak out, cut a hole in the perimeter fence and walked through the desert with their young son and arrived at the nearest hospital at dawn, and gave birth to a beautiful baby girl. The family has been a beacon of hope and nonviolent resistance in the area. May peace be with them and the continued work of Christian Peacemaker Teams in Palestine.

Light Dawns on a Weary World by Mary Louise Bringle

Love dawns on a weary world when eyes begin to see all people's dignity.

Love dawns on a weary world: the promised day of justice comes.

The trees shall clap their hands; the dry lands, gush with springs; The Hills and mountains shall break forth with singing! We shall go out in joy, and be led forth in peace, as all the world in wonder echoes shalom.

Call to Worship: Jeremiah 31:15-17

Peter Boudreau

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

^{31:15} Thus says the LORD:

A voice is heard in Ramah,

lamentation and bitter weeping.

Rachel is weeping for her children;

she refuses to be comforted for her children,
because they are no more.

¹⁶ Thus says the LORD:

Keep your voice from weeping

and your eyes from tears,

for there is a reward for your work,

says the LORD:

they shall come back from the land of the enemy;

¹⁷ there is hope for your future,

says the LORD:

your children shall come back to their own country.

From its Roman Catholic origins, this 18th-century hymn has spread to worldwide use by many denominations in both Latin and vernacular versions. Once popular with a wide range of hymn texts, this tune is now firmly associated with this Christmas text from which it is named.

Lighting of the Love Candle

Gisela O'Brien and Joe O'Brien
Chrissy King-Lopes, Kitty

What does love look like when home is lost?

It looks like someone making space anyway.

Let us love beyond walls.

Let us make room for those who wander.

Let us become the warmth others call home.

What is love? Love is...

Today we light the Candle of Love

May this light comfort the exiled and afraid.

May it shine through broken places.

May love find a home in every heart.

May it be so! Amen.

Advent Candle Lighting Song [BRING A TORCH]

Love has come and never will leave us!

Love is life everlasting and free.

Love is Jesus within and among us.

Love is the light our hearts are seeking.

Love! Love! Love is the gift of Christmas.

Love! Love! Praise to you, God on high!

Advent Prayer Of Approach

Dwelling God,

You chose the life of a refugee, carried in the steadfast love of parents. Let that same love take root in us, that wherever compassion leads, we may make a home for one another—and in that shared home, may you find your dwelling among us. Amen.

Children's Hymn: Angels We Have Heard On High (v3)

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;

Come, adore on bended knee Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.

Gloria in excelsis Deo!

Gloria in excelsis Deo!

Children's Story

Blessing of the Children

Beloved children of our church family: may God's Spirit be with you as you enter into the stories of our faith; may your imaginings be opened to encounter God's love for you and all the world; and may you be formed to care for others as you discover the Way of Jesus. Amen.

*Children going into Primary-Grade 6 are invited to go to Godly Play.

Doxology - VENI EMMANUEL

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Christ, all people here below, Praise Holy Spirit evermore;
Praise Triune God, whom we adore.
Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel shall come to Thee, O People of God!

Gospel Reading: Matthew 2:13-18

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

^{2:13}Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him." ¹⁴Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt ¹⁵and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, "Out of Egypt I have called my son."

¹⁶When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the magi. ¹⁷Then what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

¹⁸"A voice was heard in Ramah,
wailing and loud lamentation,
Rachel weeping for her children;
she refused to be consoled, because they are no more."

Iesous Ahatonnia -Levesque-Siouï, Quartet

Wendat and English text: " Sky Woman, Yäatayenhtsihk, fell from the sky at sea. An island formed on Turtle's back, Atiio (wild animals) diving deep. From battling Twins rose harmony, creation's circle önaiändih (for a long time). Singing ahskennon'nia (peace). Then came the missionaries with their own mythology: a child born to Mother Mary, come to set souls free. Three Magi bearing gifts they came, led by a star to praise his name. Iesous ahatonnia (Jesus is born). The Jesuits' story, fashioned as the Wendat's own, drove some toward these new beliefs as death and war had grown. As conflict grew, division came; the Circle severed, ever changed. Höndatrawanh (they have separated and taken different paths). Sing thanks to those who've come before to teach us harmony. A world of peace where differences can shape our unity. True friendship grows a Circle strong, for generations yet to come! Singing ahskennon'nia (peace), kwaten'ndiyonhrahchondiah (let us prepare our minds)."

Prayers Of the People

Peter Boudreau

Lord's Prayer

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

What Child Is This

1 What child is this, who, laid to rest, on Mar-y's lap is sleep-ing?
 2 Why lies he in such mean es - tate where ox and ass are feed - ing?
 3 So bring him in - cense, gold, and myrrh; come, one and all, to own him.

Whom an - gels greet with an - thems sweet while shep - herds watch are keep - ing?
 Good Chris - tian, fear; for sin - ners here the si - lent Word is plead - ing.
 The King of kings sal - va - tion brings; let lov - ing hearts en - throne him.

This, this is Christ the King, whom shep - herds guard and an - gels sing;
 Nails, spear, shall pierce him through; the cross be borne for me, for you.
 Raise, raise the song on high. The vir - gin sings her lul - la - by.

haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mar - y!
 Hail, hail, the Word made flesh, the babe, the son of Mar - y!
 Joy, joy, for Christ is born, the babe, the son of Mar - y!

This Victorian text gains scope and power by having the original second halves of stanzas two and three restored. They give a stark forward glimpse of what lies ahead for this "babe, the son of Mary!" The tune is much older, dating from Tudor England.
